New Hope Christian College

Northwest Christian University

Simpson University

What are parents saying?

"Taking courses at PBC during high school has greatly benefited our two homeschooled students! They are entering a four-year university better prepared for college-level coursework and having fulfilled certain degree requirements ahead of time. The credits from PBC transferred easily and our family was able to save a considerable amount of money."

-Homeschooling mother of two

Who is Eligible?

- High school students who have completed their sophomore year.
- Home school students who will be high school juniors or equivalent thereof by the entering semester.
